Hi Deirdre,

I am happy to forward your request to Dr. Huang. Please note she is on maternity leave until mid-February and so she is not taking on any work during this time.

I can let you know as soon as I hear back from her.

Good morning,

Would it be possible for you to forward to me a letter from Dr. Huang that describes the frequency of my visits with my kids to Eyemaxx and my involvement with Cate's vision regarding the patching of her left eye (to bring her vision up from legally blind to a near 20-20).

I realize that this is very last minute but I would be grateful if I could receive this short letter today or tomorrow (My husband is alleging in Court that I am severely mentally ill; so, I am currently gathering proof that I am very involved and always taking the initiative to ensure the well-being of my children.

Thank you so very much.

Hi Karen.

I hope that all is well in your world.

Karen, the reason that I am e-mailing today is to request a Will-Say Statement for my upcoming divorce trial from John. It is the process that must be followed in order to subpoena witnesses and your name was one that was selected by Justice Engelking (as per attached endorsement).

In order to subpoena you to the trial, I must first retain a "Will-Say" statement from you and make it available to John's lawyer (so that he may prepare his cross-examination IF you end up being at the trial) as well as the pre-trial judge. Attached you will find a list of 20 questions that I have distributed to four psychiatrists as endorsed by Justice Engelking on October 17, 2018. I have also attached part 1 of a 2-part list of documents that I refer to as "Overview". Kindly review both parts of the Overview as well as the 20 questions so that you are in a position to provide your Will-Say Statement.

In addition to the following questions, please include your name, position, role and contact information in your Will-Say Statement. The questions that I would like to pose to you are:

1. Have you reviewed documents A-Z that comprise the "Overview" provided by Deirdre Moore?
2. Have you reviewed the list of 20 questions that Deirdre is posing to some of the psychiatrists who have cared for her in the past?
3. Would you please provide your opinion of Cate's academic performance when you were her teacher?
4. Would you please describe your recollection of the meeting that you had with Deirdre and John Kiska regarding Cate's scholastics and her need for a psychological-educational assessment?
5. Do you feel that, despite the challenges of the past several years, Deirdre has tried to support her children?
6. Have you ever witnessed any evidence of mental instability exhibited by Deirdre?
7. Can you offer any explanation for why John Kiska would not support tutoring for daughter Cate?
8. Can you offer any explanation for why John Kiska has not (as of November 23, 2018)not supported an Individual Education Plan for Cate even though the topic was discussed in June of 2017?
9. The meeting identified in #4. above occurred over 18 months ago. Given your understanding of the current "family" situation, do you have any suggestions on how Deirdre can help Cate catch up academically?

Karen, if there are other questions that you feel are important for me to ask while we are in Court, please do let me know and I will revise these questions accordingly.

Are you in a position to provide your Will-Say Statement to me by December 17th?
Please do let me know at your earliest convenience.

Thank you for your help. (Overview - Part 2 of 2 will follow)

Deirdre Moore

ps. I have already delivered a printed version of the Overview and the 20 Questions to Mrs. Mills-Boone.

To whom it may concern:

Cate Kiska was enrolled in Sylvan Learning's Reading and Math programs in May, 2018. Cate has been filling in identified skill gaps in these subject areas and has shown significant growth with vocabulary development, comprehension skills, problem solving and basic numeracy skills. Continued tutoring is recommended in order for Cate to comprehend grade level vocabulary and numeracy skills required at the Grade 6 level.

→ Cate's Mother, Deirdre Moore, is the only responsible party on file and has driven Cate to all of her sessions since May, 2018. Cate missed only one 2 hour session on July 4th, 2018 - we received a call just before lesson time that Mr. Kiska could not get her here. Ms. Moore has paid Sylvan a total of $3,322.00 for tutoring services until the end of August, 2018. Please note that this includes a $125.00 test fee for Sean Kiska, therefore, Cate's portion is $3,197.00.

In general, we have seen a strengthening of both her reading and math skill while attending Sylvan. Cate's confidence and focus have improved. We look forward to furthering her education.

Kiska paid $0

Subject: tutoring hours

Hi Deirdre,

My apologies for the delay in responding sooner. I was out of the office for most of the week last week and am just catching up on emails. In terms of the tutoring for Cate, it is difficult to say the number of hours that would be appropriate. I would rely on the advice of the school and the tutor to better assess what is needed in the day to day support. I defer to their expertise in this regard.
